The Orange Park Medical Center (OPMC) GME Psychiatry Program launched in 2017, as an ACGME accredited four-year program with 16 positions. Our program is motivated to create a diverse and culturally sensitive training environment.

Our Residency Program provides residents with progressive experience across a range of services and settings to prepare them for careers in a variety of practice types as well as fellowship training and board-certification. Residents develop strong skills in patient evaluation, case formulation, and differential diagnosis, resulting in personalized treatment planning and management, through a life-cycle informed biopsychosocial perspective. Clinical care is guided by compassion and respect; with principles of patient safety and quality of care prioritized, through a multi-disciplinary and resource-based approach.

Our highly dedicated faculty provide personalized supervision; many have fellowship or subspecialty training. Residents are taught to perform ECT, TMS, emergency psychopharmacology, and will also have forensics experiences. All residents participate in either a quality improvement project, database analysis or clinical research study, as well as other scholarly activities, including presentations at regional and national meetings, and scientific publications.

Through comprehensive didactics as well as clinical rotations and evaluations, residents master the core competencies. They become advocates for patient care through clinical knowledge, using interpersonal and communication skills in systems-based practice, while promoting professionalism, through life-long practice-based learning and improvement.

Psychiatry residents work with other ACGME accredited programs at OPMC, including Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Cardiology, Dermatology, and Palliative Care; additional skills in teaching are gained through these relationships as well as through work with third and fourth year medical students and advocacy in the community.

We welcome all candidates to apply to our program through the ERAS application service. Thank you for your interest in the OPMC General Psychiatry Residency.

About the program

The Orange Park Medical Center (OPMC) Psychiatry Program provides a remarkably varied clinical exposure, with patients from rural, small town, suburban, and urban core city environments. OPMC predominantly serves residents of Clay County (including veterans and some active duty military and family members, due to its proximity to the NAS JAX air base), as well as regional patients from Georgia, Alabama, and the Carolinas. The range of psychiatric disorders includes: first-episode psychoses, schizophrenia, affective disorders (especially mania and depressive disorders), catatonia, PTSD (Post-traumatic stress disorder), OCD (Obsessive-compulsive disorder), and comorbid alcohol and substance use disorders, in a gender-balanced, economically and ethnically varied population aged 18-100+. Inpatient and outpatient rotation sites take place across the four years at private and public settings in the Jacksonville metro area, and include geriatric psychiatry, forensics, addictions, and community and child & adolescent psychiatry.

Our didactics are designed to meet the needs of residents interested in providing evidence-based care that is personalized to the patient, and informed by the biopsychosocial model, using combined treatment modalities including psychotherapy, psychotropic medications, and social interventions. Required scholarly activity projects and presentations round out the educational experience, with residents encouraged to present at both internal research day activities as well as regional and state-wide psychiatric meetings, or at the American Psychiatric Association (APA) or other national specialty meetings, as dictated by the goals of the resident. Institutional review board or quality committee submissions and publications are guided and closely mentored by faculty dedicated to GME research. Individual and group supervision is provided by members of our diverse and talented faculty.

PGY-1 & PGY-2 Years:

Clinical rotations include direct patient care in family medicine, internal medicine, neurology, inpatient psychiatry, consult-liaison psychiatry, emergency psychiatry, geriatric psychiatry, addictions, and child and adolescent psychiatry, occurring at Orange Park Medical Center, Memorial Hospital-Jacksonville, Wekiva Springs Center, and private practices.

PGY-3 Year:

A traditional outpatient year at our new Behavioral Health outpatient clinic or community partners, with focus on evidence-based psychopharmacology and psychotherapy in a highly supervised practice setting designed specifically for psychiatry residents on the OPMC campus.

PGY-4 Year:

The fourth year encourages more independence and advanced skill development with experiences in community and administrative psychiatry, an intensive outpatient program, and a variety of electives, including transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS), ECT, and palliative care.

During your residency here at Orange Park Medical Center, you will find:

- Personal attention to help you achieve your goals
- A strong academic program with many fellowship-trained faculty
- Attendings who enjoy teaching and encourage hands-on learning
- Close-working multidisciplinary teams with peers, staff, medical students, and faculty
- Faculty expertise in psychosomatic medicine, addictions, community psychiatry, perinatal psychiatry, forensics, clinical and translational research, and child and adolescent psychiatry
- In the last year, focus on ABPN (Board) Exam preparation and career planning
- A competitive salary in a family-friendly, low-cost, moderate-sized city brimming with cultural activities and diverse neighborhoods
- Pristine beaches, boating and fishing, and other outdoor activities minutes away in and around Jacksonville, Florida; near St. Augustine, Amelia Island, and between Orlando and Savannah
